William Coombes Claim

On the 10th of May 1847, Henry O. Hedgecox, agent of the Texas Emigration & Land Company (known as "The Peters Colony") signed a Certificate verifying the claim to these two half sections of land (half square miles) to William Nelson Coombes [Spec. Cert. 109].

Patent of title granted by the State of Texas on 4th April 1854 [155/122], repeated for some reason on 16th March 1855 [F/390].
