21st April 2025—last revised: 22nd August 2025

by Jim Barnes; Dallas, Texas

This research intends to focus on the history of the one square mile William Coombes headright in Dallas, Texas; therefore, this summary will not attempt to be a full listing of all of the ancestors, nor of all of the descendants, of William Nelson Coombes, the original White Settler pioneer who settled in 1843 in what-later-became Dallas County. Instead, this list gives only names of family members William Nelson Coombes might have known, or heard of, as a boy in Kentucky; and the family who might have had interest in his Dallas County land grant, leaving the complete family history to others.

Kentucky opened to immigration, for most White Settler pioneers, after the American Revolution -- becoming a new state in June, 1793. Neither the Glover nor Coombs clans seem to have been in Kentucky very long before William Nelson Coombes was born there in 1803. They seem typical of restless American pioneers, moving successively westward in search of better farming land, and sufficient acreage to provide for their large number of heirs.

The descendants of William Nelson Coombes

by Jim Barnes; Dallas, Texas

Spelling of this surname is inconsistent – sometimes Coombes, other times Combs, Coombs, Combes, Cooms, Coomes, Coombz, etc. The Dallas County family in the mid-late 20th century consistently pronounced their surname to sound like "combs" (hair implements), but local pronunciation of the Dallas creek named for William Coombes, Coombes Creek, inexplicably shifted in the 1940s to "cooms" – rhyming with "rooms".

A confusion about the place "Nelson, Kentucky": FamilySearch.com has William Nelson Coombes being enrolled in the 1830 Census in the "Eastern District of Nelson, Kentucky; Nelson, Muhlenberg, Kentucky". This might be confusion between the hamlet of Nelson (also known as Nelson Creek) in Muhlenberg County, Kentucky, and Nelson County, Kentucky –two separate places. The Coombes family members of this genealogy never resided in Muhlenberg County.

Berilla Kemper Myers birth: 31st December 1831 Despite the fact that her tombstone lists her birth as having been on 31st Dec 1830, there are reasons to think that New Year's Eve of 1831 might be the true date. Almost all my records of her birth are handwritten "1831", then a "0" overwriting the last

"1". One citation, in the family Bible of Lewis

2 – William Hamilton Coombes (1840-1841)^{A.}
birth in Nelson County, Kentucky^{C.}

2 – Matilda Rebecca (Coombes) Holt (1842-1880)^{A.}
birth: 8th September 1842^{A.C.}

As of June 2025, FindAGrave gives her birth as having been in Dallas County, Texas^{A.C.}

This would be an incredibly early date for Dallas County; and, based on other Dallas history, this birth location is deemed inaccurate. The 1850 Census has her having been born in Texas, and it is thought that her birth likely occurred at her emigrant parents' temporary camp in Red River County, Texas.

died: date, death location, and burial unknown, probably prior to 1878.

married: William Leighton Holt (1844-1920)^{A.}: 6 July 1867 by Meredith Myers, J.P.^{C.}

2 -- William Ivy Coombes (1847 -- ?)^{B.}

FamilySearch.com lists his birth on the 17th of June 1847, so perhaps this is the infant death causing the death of mother Ivy Green Coombes on the 6th of July 1847.

1985-02-11; Dallas Times Herald; Bill Porterfield; "A family and a frontier lost in the American metropolis", p. A-13 states: "We know that Old Man Coombs' first wife is buried there with a still born daughter."

2 -- Rebecca F. (or R. or T.) no dates^{B.}

End of children of William Nelson Coombes [1803-1867] and first wife Ivy (Green) Coombes.

The 2nd marriage of William Nelson Coombes (1803-1867):

1 – Rachel Ann (McDowell) Coombes -- (second wife; mother)^{D.}

parents: John McDowell^{I.} or Hamilton McDowell (deemed dubious)^{A.}

This is perhaps the same John McDowell (1800-1858) buried in the Pioneer Cemetery of Dallas, born in Tennessee, coming to Dallas County in 1847, with a land grant in the Peters Colony^{C.}

There are two 320 acre headright surveys with the John McDowell name. One is located east of today's Preston Road, extending one mile east; and running ½ mile north of today's Northwest Highway, and a second dubbed "heirs of John McDowell" running one mile east of Beckley Avenue, and extending one-half mile north of Illinois.

2 -- Leven Green Coombs; born: before 1859^B.

1860 Census: Levina J. Coombs, age 2, in the household of Wm. N. Coombs^H.
Since Josephine B. Coombes isn't listed in the 1860 Census, and Leveina J. Coombes is only found once – in that 1860 Census -- it is deemed that they are one and the same.

(End of children of William Nelson Coombes [1803-1867] and second wife Rachel A. Coombes)

There are other Combs families enrolled in the 1850 Census for Dallas County, who are deemed to be unrelated to the family of William Nelson Coombes. Senior in that group was Joseph Pearson Combs (1798-1882) and his wife Mary Elizabeth Parker Combs (1799-1890). Joseph was a son of Azur "Zur" Combs (1763-1828) and Mary Ann Creek (1769-1819). Joseph P. Combs' children in the 1850 Census include: Zur David Combs (1823-1890) and wife Sarah Katherine Evans (1828-1928); son William L. Combs (1825-1909), wife Elizabeth A. Combs (1799-1890); and daughter Sarah Martha Combs (1850-1876). Joseph's other children enrolled in the 1850 Dallas County Census include: Robert age 16, Lina age 23, Tipton age 12, and Elizabeth age 10. Joseph Combs came to the Peters Colony prior to July 1848, and was issued a Certificate for 464 acres, which he sold un-located. His son Zur Combs, similarly comes to the Colony as a single male, and is issued a Certificate for 320 acres, which he also sold un-located.

There is also: "William H. Coombs migrated to the Peters Colony as a single man prior to July 1, 1844, and settled on a company survey in present Dallas County. He was issued a land certificate by Thomas William Ward in 1850 and patented 316 acres in Dallas County (Robertson Third Class No. 1769)."^{B.} In the source cited here, he is indentified as William Hamilton Coombes, a son of William Nelson Coombes; but, that relationship is deemed incorrect because that son had already died, as an infant, in Kentucky. More likely, this is the William L. Combs who is son of the above mentioned Joseph P. Combs and brother of Zur David Combs.

At this time there is no record of any relationship between this Combs family and the family of William Nelson Coombes (1803-1867).^{B.A.E..}

There is also a citation (at Combs-Combs &c. website, hosted by USGenNet, --copied March 2009), for the marriage of Joshura Combs & Ruth A. Rickets, performed on the 22nd of January 1850 by W.H.Hord, C.J., with a reference to Marriages: Dallas County, Texas; Volume I, Books A-E (1846 - 1877), p.2.. edited by Helen Mason Lu and Gwen Blomquist Neumann, Dallas Genealogical Society, 1978. Nothing further could be found about this couple.

Separately, there is a Dallas County pioneer named Stephen Coombes, who died in 1847-- probate Case # 296, for which William P. Overton served as Executor. According to Seymour V. Connor's history of the Peters Colony, in 1853 the heirs of this Stephen Combs received Fannin Third Class Certificate No. 1388 for 320 acres, which was eventually located in Collin County. Stephen Combs was listed on the Dallas County tax rolls of 1847. At this time there is no record of any relationship between this Stephen Combs and the family of William Nelson Coombes (1803-1867).
