A Raffle.

At the raffle last night for three articles, the handiwork of Mrs. Kessler, Colonel Eblin and Mr. L. H. Ensel tied on the first prize, a handsome piano cover, throwing 45. Captain C. E. Keller threw 43, winning the second prize, a sofa cushion—a beautiful piece of work, and the Grand-Windsor hotel and Mr. A. Freeman tied on the handsome shawl, throwing 43. The ties were settled between the parties without further throwing. The chances were $1 each, and there being one hundred and fifty chances they netted $150. Mrs. Kessler is a lady in rather straightened circumstances, fully deserving, and being an expert with the needle she makes a living by sewing.
